

Where to start

I'm scared and lonely!! I miss my friends and family more than I ever thought I would

I even miss the routine that school brought. I'd go back if only I could.

It is likely I won't ever go back to school, my future is Uncertain. It is beginning to feel like the final curtain

GCSE's not taken, Prom not attended, finally goodbyes not said.

Anxiety is on high alert, feelings of dread

But through the darkness there is some light, a small ray shining ever bright

Each new day brings us closer to the end of this fright

A wise woman said this would not be forever,

I listened and learnt, I will be strong and give up

NO Never.
